New Video Course takes Player from BRAND NEW to PLAYING POINTS in 30 Days!

The 30 Day Tennis Blueprint is for anyone who is new to Spec Tennis or tennis who wants to save time, money, and frustration.

The course teaches very simple, functional swings that players of all ages, fitness levels, and athletic abilities can have success with.

It can even be done from comfort of your own home.

So much tennis instruction is overly focused on technique to the point where the student doesn't get to actually "play". By following the simplified "Blueprint" in the course, you'll learn the right mix of technique and tactics that will get you playing quickly. (Let's face it, playing is more fun for most people than 'drilling', so it's important to get them the playing experience as soon as possible in their journey so that they fall in love with the game.)

Fantastic Turnout at Wimbledon 109 Tennis Club's Free Clinic

In Walpole, Massachusetts, a large number of people came out for the free Spec Tennis clinic led by Dave Fish (former Harvard Tennis Coach), Tom Friedman (Founder of Boston Metro Spec Tennis Club/President of Friends of Newton Tennis), and Sami O'Reilly (Executive Director of Friends of Newton Tennis).

The success of the event caught the eyes of management and the Assistant GM sent out a clubwide announcement that they will offer Spec Tennis at the club moving forward.

74% of the clinic participants ended up purchasing paddles after the event, and the club has already begun planning an April Round Robin.

Who’s Got Next Game?

When you have a large group of players, sometimes players have to wait for their turn to play. The Niagara-on-the-Lake Spec Tennis Club created a cool system for this. Hang your name tag the board when you are waiting for ‘next game’.

Ambassadors Meet in Hawaii

Recently, ambassador Dave Houston from Half Moon Bay, CA went to Maui, and played Spec with ambassadors Susan Frieder and Ralph Gorgoglione.

Boston Metro Holds First Official Meetup

The Boston Metro Spec Tennis Club has been very busy lately. In addition to the clinic at the Wimbledon 109 club, they also held the first official "Meetup" in Newton, MA that drew 7 players.
