

Baldwin

FROM THINKING GIRLS TO ACCOMPLISHED WOMEN

ABOUT Baldwin

Baldwin School in Bryn Mawr, PA, USA is an independent all girls' school teaching Pre-K through 12th grade with a nationally renowned athletic program. Located in the heart of Philadelphia's prestigious Mainline, Baldwin's athletic facilities include 4 squash courts, a swimming pool, competition gym, basketball center indoor running tracks, fitness center, outdoor tennis courts and 3 state-of-the-art outdoor fields. Baldwin is situated at the center of squash in the US, with over 1000 registered junior players, 7 top private schools and the PSA US Open all within 30mins drive.

Associate Director JOB SUMMARY:

2014/2015 represented the most successful year in Baldwin's squash history with the High School and Middle School teams reaching 3 National Finals and winning 2 National Titles. On the back of this success Baldwin is looking to expand its programming and is seeking an experienced Associate Director of Squash responsible for the teaching, training and coaching of some of the countries top junior players.

SKILLS REQUIRED:

- Bachelors degree preferred
- Minimum of 5 years experience coaching junior squash at an elite level
- Level 3 coaching certification or equivalent
- Track record in program/club development and squash entrepreneurship
- Exceptional communication skills
- Organizationally proficient, reliable and professional

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Working with Baldwin's Squash Director, international coaching team and strength and conditioning support staff, you will:

- Help expand and direct Baldwin's national leading program at the beginner, intermediate and elite levels
- Lead the Middle School Squash team at regional and National Level
- Teach individual, group and team sessions
- Head up the School PE squash classes

The Associate Director of Squash position is a full time position reporting to the Director of Squash and Director of Athletics

Compensation:

Very competitive base salary and %of all lessons/programs

Full benefits including: medical, dental, 401K

High earning potential.

Qualified candidates should email a cover letter and resume to Sherri Farrenwald in our Human Resources Department. sfarenwald@baldwinschool.org