

Bard College Department of Athletics and Recreation
Assistant Coach
Part-Time Staff Position Description

The Assistant Coach reports to the Head Coach, and also to the Director of Athletics. The purpose of the position is to support to the College's Intercollegiate Program with the intention of maintaining the program within the guidelines of the NCAA Division III and additional conference affiliations.

Bard College is looking for a part squash assistant to help with the daily coaching and match administration of 2 varsity teams. There will be a strong emphasis of on court team coaching and match coaching associated with this position. Candidates must be available for evenings and weekends during the season, Oct-Mar

All interested applicants, should send resumes and all questions to Craig Thorpe-Clark, Head Coach, Men's and Women's Squash, via email to cthorcec@bard.edu This is an ideal opportunity for a recent college grad, or any person looking to gain experience in College Squash.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Consults with Head Coach regarding daily practice plans and training assignments.
Available for evening and weekend, practice and match schedules.
Communicates with Head Coach regarding evaluations of student-athletes and assists with the implementation of necessary strategies to maintain the program in a competitive manner.
Is capable of solely running practice in the event the Head Coach is unavailable due to illness or personal emergency.
Prepares team for competitions related to uniform inventory, sports medicine items and other necessary team travel items.
Reports match results to S.I Director and College Squash Association
Assists Head Coach in areas of competition plans and match coaching and home match event administration.
Displays commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as per the NCAA Constitution which are consistent with Bard College's educational mission and goals.
Adheres to additional policies and procedures contained in the Bard College Coaches' Handbook.

REQUIREMENTS

Experience as a competitive player, and previous coaching experience is recommended.
CPR/AED and First Aid certification is strongly recommended.