

Join The Creek: A Legacy of Excellence on the Long Island Sound

Position: Director of Squash/Head Squash Professional

Location: Locust Valley, NY

About The Creek:

Established in 1923 and nestled along the scenic Long Island Sound, The Creek is one of the nation's premier private country clubs. Our mission, "Special Every Day, Better Every Day," is driven by our core values of Family, Fun, and Sanctuary.

Job Summary:

This role demands a dynamic professional to manage our comprehensive squash programs for both youth and adults, emphasizing a culture of excellence and enjoyment in every game and lesson.

Key Responsibilities:

- Elevate the squash experience for members and guests with exceptional service and professional attention.
- Lead and expand our squash programs, including daily play, clinics, individual and group lessons, and special events.
- Develop and nurture partnerships with two of the area's leading private schools, enhancing our junior programs and fostering developmental pathways for aspiring young athletes.
- Organize and administer tournaments, manage court utilization effectively, and ensure the highest safety and maintenance standards.
- Drive continuous improvement in squash coaching techniques and member engagement.
- Collaborate with the club's leadership and racquets committees to align with The Creek's strategic goals.

Skills and Qualifications:

- Proven expertise in increasing squash participation at a community or club level.
- A passion for teaching squash to a diverse demographic, from juniors to seniors and beginners to advanced players.
- An accomplished background in squash, ideally in both singles and doubles play.
- Outstanding communication skills, a service-oriented mindset, and a high emotional quotient.
- Ability to foster a team environment and work collaboratively with other club professionals.

What We Offer:

- An attractive compensation package, including a competitive salary plus revenue from lessons and pro shop sales.
- Comprehensive benefits package: 401(k) with matching, dental, health, life, and vision insurance, disability coverage, and generous paid time off.
- A vibrant work environment where your work is meaningful and appreciated.

Application:

If you are driven to lead, inspire, and contribute to a legacy of sporting excellence, we invite you to apply. Join us at The Creek, where every day is special and every day is an opportunity to be better.
